Routine Notes.

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record.]

The Third Member of Council and Chairman, Central Recruitment Board observed that in future vacancies may be advertised in two parts --

A. General vacancies (candidates of any community can apply for the same)

B. Special vacancies reserved for Backward classes.

1) In the case of B. class vacancies, the applications of Brahmin candidates may be held up in the office and need not be forwarded, unless there ~~were~~ are no applications from the candidates of the backward communities. In case there ~~were~~ are no applications from the backward class candidates, other applications, if received, may be forwarded to the Unit officers with the intimation that arrangements may be temporarily made for three months and the vacancies re-advertised.

3) Hence it is proposed to issue a ~~Notification enforcing~~ Circular keeping all officers to report General and Special vacancies separately. Draft Circular is also put up for appl.

4) Accordingly, it is proposed to hold up applications of Brahmin candidates for the vacancies now advertised, except in the case of those which have been noted as general.

5) As the orders of Government are clear, that none except Non-Brahmins should be appointed in special vacancies, this appears to be a very desirable procedure. It would facilitate, the checking of 'B' statements by classifying the candidates in the order of their merit and to see whether the best qualified candidate has been appointed. It would also save much scriptory work. It would avoid also the impression in the mind of some officers that the mere forwardal of the applications by the C.R. Board warrants the appointment of any candidate irrespective of his caste. for giving an appointment. They seem to think that the Board would not have forwarded the same appointment if the approval of any of them was objectionable.

6) Copy of the letter forwarding applications of Brahmin candidates in case of special vacancies when no Non-Brahmin candidate is available for the first time is also submitted for perusal.
